Frequently Asked Questions

What are free listing photos, and how can I access them?

Free listing photos are professional-quality images of your properties provided at no cost to Epique Realty agents. You can access them through our dedicated agent portal.

Are the listing photos high-quality, and do I have any input into the photography?

Yes, our free listing photos are of the highest quality. While you don't need to worry about photography arrangements, you can provide input regarding specific shots or angles you'd like to highlight in the photos.

How many listing photos can I receive for each property?

You'll get somewhere between 25-45 photos for each listing sent to you within 24 hours of your photography session.

How does the free sign installation, removal, and storage benefit work?

Epique Realty takes care of the entire process, from installing your yard sign when listing a property to removing it when the property sells or becomes unavailable.

What types of signs are provided, and are they durable?

We provide top-quality white colonial posts with weather-proof aluminum signs. These signs are designed to withstand various weather conditions and maintain their professional appearance.

Do I have control over where the signs are installed?

Yes, you can collaborate with our team to ensure your yard signs are strategically placed to maximize visibility and reach.

Frequently Asked Questions

Can you explain how the free Social Media ads work for property listings?

Epique Realty offers free Facebook & Instagram paid ads to boost the visibility of your listings on the platform. We target a specific audience to increase exposure and attract potential buyers.

Is there a limit to the number of Facebook ads I can run for my listings?

Every listing will run for 7 consecutive days upon ordering. You may request as many 7 day extensions each week.

Do I have any control over the content and targeting of these ads?

Your professionally designed and marketed ads will be shown to the most likely homebuyers in the area of your listing.

What are email blasts, and how can they benefit my listings?

Email blasts allow you to share your listings with every agent in your MLS, regardless of brokerage. It's a powerful way to gain more exposure and potentially find the right buyers or sellers.

How frequently can I send email blasts to fellow agents?

We send email blasts once when the property is listed, and can send an additional blast if there is a price reduction or an upcoming Open House.
