Frequently Asked Questions

What is an agent billboard, and how can I benefit from it?

An agent billboard is a personalized, high-visibility display that showcases your name and brand. It's an effective tool to boost your personal brand, attract clients, and elevate your profile in the real estate market.

Are these billboards tailored to each agent's brand, or are they generic?

Our agent billboards are Epique Branded and customized to include your name, photo, and contact information. We believe in spotlighting you as an individual agent.

How does the process of getting an agent billboard work?

Epique Realty takes care of the entire process. We design, produce, and install the billboards for you, ensuring that your name shines bright in your target market.

What are listing billboards, and how can they benefit my property listings?

Listing billboards are dynamic, large-scale displays that showcase your properties. They're a powerful tool to amplify the visibility of your listings and capture the attention of potential buyers.

Are these billboards customizable to highlight specific properties, or are they generic?

Our listing billboards are tailored to promote your specific properties. We work with you to create eye-catching displays that spotlight your listings effectively.

How do I get a listing billboard for one of my properties?

Epique Realty manages the entire process. We handle the design, production, and installation of the billboards for your listings, enhancing their visibility and attracting potential buyers.

How long does my billboard run for?

Your agent billboard will run for the entire time you are at Epique. Listing billboards run for up to 30 days maximum.
